

WALNUT STREET THEATRE

Residency Activities

Workshop

Meet the Cast Talk Back

- Audience: General audience
- Number of Participants: capacity of the venue
- Length: 15-20 minutes, directly following the show
- Requirements: Theater, chairs to accommodate all actors, 1-2 bottles of water as needed.

This is a chance for all audience members to have their questions answered by some of the actors of Walnut Street Theatre immediately following the performance. This will be moderated by a staff member of the hosting venue in coordination with the stage manager.

Masterclass

Acting Technique

- Audience: students age 14 through adults
- Number of Participants: minimum of 8, maximum of 12.
- Length: 60 minutes
- Requirements: An open clean space appropriate for number of participants; 1-2 microphones (depending on size of room), 1-2 chairs, 1-2 bottles of water.

A member of the cast will meet with the participants to explore acting challenges specific to stage productions. Participants may read from part of the script as part of the exercise for a better understanding. For a more advanced workshop, participants may bring a memorized monologue or scene to explore.

Lecture/Demonstration

Education Lecture/Demonstration

- Audience: General Audience
- Number of Participants: capacity of venue
- Length: 60 minutes

Students will engage in a 1 hour educational walk-through that will include select scenes from Around the World in 80 Days. Actors will appear in one costume from the show and discuss with the audience their process and how the play was staged. An actor's preparation and their work with the director in putting the play together will be discussed. A short Q&A will be included at the end.
